Metro presents a fine program at the Olympic every Wednesday, featuring a popular actress.

All Should Attend Meeting

All patriotic and loyal citizens should arrange their affairs so that they can attend the big mass meeting in the Monessen High school auditorium, tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. Lieut. McCallum, who has seen active service in France, will be one of the principal speakers. He has an interesting story to tell. He is sent by Division Headquarters from Philadelphia especially for this meeting. It is needless to say that Monessen and Belle Vernon people will welcome the opportunity of greeting a man who has done his share of the fighting in France.

The music for the occasion will be the best obtainable in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Vida McCullough McClure, soloist of the Hiland Presbyterian church, will sing some special numbers Miss Mabel King, contralto, of the Point Breeze church, who has already gained many friends in this community, will render some patriotic numbers. Miss King has been singing with a patriotic organization during the last six months, and has appeared in a number of concerts for war relief work in the western end of the state.

J. Howard Kelly is chairman of the speakers' committee and will have general charge of the meeting. The ushering arrangements have been completed for handling the crowd, and Prof. Wahlstrom and members of the Louhi orchestra have volunteered to donate their services for the instrumental music Prof. E.E Drake will play the accompaniments for Mrs. McClure and Miss King.

All supporters of the Red Cross are invited and urged to be present at this important and interesting meeting. No collection will be taken, but inasmuch as the meeting is being held in the interests of the second Red Cross War Fund, it is possible that plans will be discussed concerning the forthcoming campaign.

NOTICE

Members of German Beneficial Union No. 175 are hereby requested to attend the meeting tomorrow. Interesting business on hand. Free lunch will be served.

School Board Levies 20 Mills

Taxpayers of Monessen will pay 42 mills this year. The school board at a meeting this week raised the millage from 16½ to 20 mills in order to reach the budget which has been soaring by leaps and bounds. With salary raises and increased operating expenses with no eliminations, there seemed to be no other way out, hence the increase of millage. The growth of the schools has kept up a steady increase with additional teachers every term and the valuation of the town has not kept pace sufficient to warrant keeping the millage down. This burden will fall heavy on all people of the town inasmuch as there are so many constantly increasing expenses from sources due to the war. In addition to providing for revenue to operate the schools for the year, several additional teachers were elected.

Didicate Big Service Flag

This morning at 8 o'clock, a beautiful service flag was placed on the flag pole at the American Sheet and Tin Plate company in honor of the men from that industry who are in the various branches of the National Army. The emblem contains 77 stars indicating the number who have joined the great forces marching on to conquer the Hun. The men who have gone out are from every department of the mill and the service this morning was touching and appropriate and was participated in by employes of the plant whose loyalty to the government is par excellent to a man.

J. B. Jones, an employe of the mill, made the address which was brief and to the point. The flag is a beauty, in size 10x12 feet and floats to the breeze directly under the stars and stripes. The exercises were befitting the day and were held just a few hours before the big Red Cross parade moved.

PEOPLE HERE WILL OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY FITTINGLY

Memorial Day, May 30, will be fittingly observed in Monessen and the services will be more impressive than any on a similar occasion in Monessen's history. The services are to be held in the Christian church at 10 o'clock a. m., the speakers of the day to be Dr. C. E. Keller, of the St. Paul English Lutheran church and Rev. D. R. Graham of the First Methodist church.

Both speakers will prepare their talks to conform with the proclamation of President Wilson, in which the people are asked to pray for victory of the American armies.

Dr. Keller's subject will be "Essentials from Effectual Prayer; Conditions Precedent."

Rev. Graham will talk on "Prayer for Peace."

Below is the President's Memorial Day Proclamation:

Washington, D. C.—National Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30, is designed by President Wilson in proclamation issued Saturday as a day of public humiliation prayer, and fasting. The people of the nation are asked to gather that day in their places of worship and pray for the victory of the American armies, which will bring a peace founded upon mercey, justice and good will. The proclamation, issued in response to a resolution of congress follows:

By the President of the United States
A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the Congress of the United States, on the second day of April last, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), that, it being a duty peculiarly incumbent in a time of war humbly and devoutly to acknowledge our dependence on Almighty God and to implore His aid and protection, the President of the United States, be, and he is hereby, respectfully requested to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause, His blessings on our arms and speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the Nations of the earth;

And whereas, it has always been the reverent habit of the people of the United States to turn in humble appeal to Almighty God for His guidance in the affairs of their common life;

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the thirtieth day of May a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting and to exhort my fellow citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their several places of worship and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and solve the truth, to accept and defend all things that are just, right and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with His will; beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity, and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost in support of what is just and true, bringing us at last to the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia, this eleventh of May, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighteen and of Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Forty second.

WOODROW WILSON,
By the President.
ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State.

Truck Was Demolished

The B. & O. express, east bound, due at Finleyville at 12:15 p. m., struck and completely demolished a truck owned by Troutman Brothers, lumber dealers, at noon yesterday. Clarence Troutman, a son of one of the owners, who was driving the truck was badly injured.

The boy was in charge of the truck which was heavily laden with lumber and had started on a trip to go out the brick road, west of Finleyville. He did not hear the approaching train and drove directly in front of the engine. The impact was terrific, the truck being reduced to a wreck in a twinkling, while the lumber was scattered in every direction. The boy was thrown from his seat and picked up some distance from the crossing in a very serious condition.

One of the passenger cars jumped the track and careened to an angle of about 45 degrees, where it was held. None of the passengers in the car were injured. The tracks of the railroad were completely blocked by the accident and passengers transferred and made the balance of the journey to Pittsburg by trolley.

Insulted Woman

Alexander Waylovich was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. It appears the man went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baran on Seneca street and made insulting remarks about Mrs. Baron, who made information and had him arrested. The Burgess placed a fine of $7.00 and ordered him to steer clear of the Baron home hereafter.

Many Fine Positions are Going Begging

Although our schools have been filled to capacity during the last year, we have not been able to fill more than half the high class positions that were offered, and the calls are coming in every day.

Every graduate has had a choice of several places as soon as he was ready.

In order to help supply this demand, we are running our school throughout the summer. If you have a good general education, a few months will fit you for a high class position.

Our modern Paragon shorthand will enable you to become an efficient stenographer in two to four months, less time than would be possible with any other system.

Committees Made Reports

The Board of Trade held its monthly meeting in the council chamber last night. There being no set program, the meeting was largely taken up in the reports of committees and discussions for the welfare of the community. When Chairman Lohman announced "Order," the room was sparingly filled, but by the time minutes of previous meetings had been approved, the room was crowded. The word had gotten out that George Nash, chairman of transportation, would be present and attracted some little attention as it was thought he might touch upon the inefficiencies of the local street car company and suggest what part the community plays in the hardships imposed upon the traveling public due to past mistakes, misinterpretations and blunders. But Mr. Nash didn't seem to feel the street car muddle was in the hands of his committee for adjustment and he passed it by in his report without mention.

L. X. Ely was in the meeting to suggest to Mr. Nash that he might give a little more time to the work of his committee, and in several places the meeting manifested a vein of humor.

Alfred Tanzer made a detailed report of the work of the charity committee which was accepted. The roads committee was recommended for having handled the improvement of the Greensburg road in such a creditable manner as it did, keeping all movements free from political alliances as is the policy of the board in all matters of public concern. The war service committee made an interesting report and showed a clean slate and a record of patriotic deeds. Chairman Lohman established a precedent by having a big box of luscious smokes on the table to demonstrate his appreciation of the loyal support he is receiving in his administration. The meeting adjourned in hopes for many such profitable get together affairs.

Youth's Body Found in Trunk

Brookville, Pa., May 17.—Lee Helscel at noon today found the dead body of his son, Harry, aged 11 years jammed into a small trunk at the Helscel home here. The lad had been missing since last Sunday afternoon. Except for the fact that his corpse has been found the mystery of his disappearance is as great as at any time during the week.

Not in years have Jefferson county authorities had such a deep criminal puzzle. Not a trace could be found of the lad since he left the house on Sunday. The father today looked into the trunk merely by chance. The body apparently had been forced in by doubling under the head and the legs. The lad's clothing and hair were wet. A hasty medical examination led to the verdict that he had not died by drowning.

The body evidently was put into the trunk before rigor mortis became complete. Had the boy been put there alive, and with any strength his calls would have been heard in all probability. The trunk is an old one with a canvas cover. It lay on the second floor of a stable near the Helscel dweling. The family has been about constantly since the lad was found to be missing. No indications of a pervert having killed the child are seen. A large bump on the base of the skull does not seem sufficient to have caused death.

An idea that the boy was killed in play and his body smuggled into the stable by playmates who feared to tell is scouted by the father and other relatives. A narrow stairway leading to the stable's second floor is of such a character that it would keep a man busy lugging a heavy burden up it. It is doubtful if more than one person could work at such a task because of the difficult access to the second floor.

Chief of Police J. Ballebach and Sheriff Marvin G. Mayes tonight turned all their theories over to Coroner N. C. Mills, who motored over from Punxsutawney. The Helscels moved to Brookville from Kane last September, Mr. Helscel going into partnership in gas drilling with Andy J. Cook of this place.

MADAME---MEET MARS

Madame—meet Mars!

There's a war in the world today and it's about time that some women were introduced to it. The tortured bodies of the living dead litter Europe's battlefield. No Man's Land is wiped out in the surging tides of bleeding armies. God alone knows how a wounded man can suffer before he enters into the peace of death.

There's a war in the world today. But give any street the once-over and the glitter of beads and the gleam of thin silks will prove that many fine ladies are living in ignorance or indifference to the world's great agony. Yet for each one of the buyers of baubles, for every pretty coquette whose only interest is to deck her fair bod ywith fripperies, some soldier has laid down his life.

Think, madame, that every minute of every day, for a week past, scores of valiant men have died—that you may live. They have made you their heir. They have deeded liberty to you.

Life was sweet to them all, as it is to you. Yet the only use you make of your heritage is to purchase white shoes for your dainty feet and pink powder for your nose! Measured by your standard of personal beauty, does their martyrdom seem quite worth while?

Plainly, a new and nobler part must be assigned to all fair ladies. They must make themselves worthy of the deeds of their men. And the first thing for them to do is to forget their love of finery, as the women of England and France have done. The German hordes have come on in the west because the total woman-power of the country backs its man-power.

And whether she wants to do so or not, the American woman must now walk hand in hand with Mars. She has no choice. She has no escape. If the American boys are to win their battles quickly, if they are to get through with the horror and finish it soon, the American woman must make the god of war her friend.

Therefore, Madame, meet Mars!

TOUGH AND GERMAN

During 1917 there died in Germany 720,000 more men and women—Germans, mind you—between the ages of 55 and 75 than died the year before, which in turn showed a higher mortality rate among the aged than any pre-war year. That is not remarkable. The best food and the most of it in Germany goes to the soldiers and to the ruling classes. The aged poor live on near-food, and little of that.

But the remarkable thing in connection with the above statistics is the statement made by a high German health official. "We are glad of it," he declared. "It proves that every day the German power is increasing!"

And then he goes on to explain that the abnormal death rate among the old folks reduces the number of mouths which demand food—mouths of people who can no longer fight in the trenches nor produce food or munitions at home.

"The more persons upward from 55 die the more invincible will become the fatherland," he added. These old folks, be it remembered, are the ones who in their younger days bore the burden of kaiserism and militarism for years, and for their reward the kaiser decrees: "To old to live!"

The Men Who KnoW

With American Army in France, May 14.—A man who joined the American army as a private last year is now a brigadier general commanding troops fighting in France.

A whole lot of officers who held important commands before America entered the war have been relieved of these commands.

It takes very little war to separate the sheep from the goats—to bring forward the men who KNOW and DO—and to relegate to the background those who DON'T KNOW and CAN'T DO.

The government and the folks back home hold General Pershing responsible for the army in France. If the army makes good, Pershing will be voted a great general. If he doesn't they'll want to know what the matter was with Pershing.

So Pershing isn't taking any chances on having any dead timber around him.

Shortly before the first units were sent into the trenches to hold a permanent American sector, there was a wholesale reassignment of officers.

New colonels, new majors, new captains and new lieutenants galore suddenly appeared and took command.

The major commanding the first battalion to enter the trenches was a man who hadn't been with the American army more than two or three weeks

But he knew more about this war game here than possibly any other five American officers put together.

This man was an enlisted man from Tennessee in the Spanish-American war and when the Unied Stated took over the Phillipines he went out as a lieutenant, and was an officers in the constabulary in 1914.

He took a commission in the British army and in three years saw service in Flanders, France, Greece and Palestine. When General Pershing secured his release from the British service so he could fight with his own country-men he was just recovering from his seventeenth wound.

The surprising thing about the front line trenches is the youthfulness of the captains and lieutenants. Nearly all the captains are under 30 and practically all the lieutenants under 25. In one fighting unit every officer came into the service from civil life. The captain is 24. To be commanded in battle by officers of this type is a great incentive to the enlisted men. At the same time a democratic feeling exists that helps rather than hurts discipline.

I am convinced that the American army is going to become the world's most efficient army, possessing more intelligence and striking harder blows than any other army, and it will become such without banishing our democratic ideals for the Prussian theory that an enlisted man is a dog and an officer a god.

THE SCARLET CROSS

By

Margaret Widdemer

Of the Vigilantes.

What is it that you do today, who lift the Scarlet Cross?
For all the withered world is down in ruin and in loss,

And all the world hears clashing sword, and hears no sound less plain—
What can you do who lift the Cross, but heal to fight again?

We guard the women left alone, heartbroken for their dead,
We save the children wandering where all save Fear has fled,

We raise again the broken towns swept down by shot and shell,
We heal again the broken souls hopeless from learning Hell—

Oh, they who saw but Grief and Hate see now our red sign plain—
We save the sad world's soul alive that War had nearly slain!

Bombardments Cannot Drive This Woman Back

She Thinks Coffee for Soldiers More Important Than Safety.

The following extracts are taken from a letter written by a Red Cross Canteen worker, Helen McElhone, an American woman and college graduate now located in a district almost constantly under bombardment:

"Foyer des Allies,
"Bar-le-Duc.

"Things look very black to me. I am discouraged at the big outlook of affairs and also at my small doings, but it may be the blackness that comes before dawn. Let us hope so. Our men certainly need help now as much as the poilus. I am beginning to see those who have been at the front. In fact, I am beginning to see some of the results of this life. They are sick and homesick, and worse things have happened to them. Several have said: 'All we ask is to get to the front and do what we have to do. Anything is better than this life. . . .' This morning we had more Americans than I have seen before at one time. One came up to me here as I was drawing coffee from a big marmite as fast as I could fill cups and, pointing to his pipe, said, 'Tobac, tobac.' I said, 'Do you want some tobacco?' He seemed stunned for a moment and then said: 'Do you know it nearly gave me a fit to hear you speak English. I haven't heard a woman speak English in five months.' He said he had been walking about in the cold since four o'clock last night. He couldn't find a hotel or a bright light because, of course, everything is closed and darkened on account of the bombardments. . . . The Americans are very fond of ham sandwiches. They eat much more than the French soldiers, and when they first came in and ordered six eggs apiece it caused consternation throughout the land. The funniest thing of all is to hear the Sammies grandly urging these wealthy English girls to 'keep the change—oh, keep the change!' . . . We start the day at five and work continuously until nine, when three fresh cantinieres relieve us. At five we go on for the evening shift from five to eight, and it is the most exciting and exhausting of the shifts. There is a certain time when they come down on us like a flood, eight or ten deep around the counter and three or four hundred altogether in this little room, as eager and tired as schoolboys."

The foregoing letter indicates that our soldiers look to the Red Cross Canteen as an oasis in a desert. They would not have it if it were not for your Red Cross.

Relief from Eczema

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using a little zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or extra large bottle at $1.00.

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema, and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

NO MORE RUNNING SORES

Craig's Drug Store Sells an Ointment Called San Cura That is a Positive Relief.

It matters not how old, persistent or poisonous the sore is, San Cura Ointment, the powerful antiseptic will draw out the poison and promptly heal the sore.

So sure of this are the owners, the Thompson Medical Co., that they have authorized Craig's drug store to return the purchase price if San Cura Ointment doesn't do all this paper says it will do. No fairer offer was ever made.

B. D. Dutton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment relieved the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used."

The healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives relief, and is guaranteed to help salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching or protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands and chilblains. In cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it allays pain and is healing. 30c, 60c and $1.20 a jar. By mail on receipt of price, if your druggist is out of it or does not keep it.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The Log of the Test Car Fleet

"Linear Miles, 1,044,686. Tire Miles, 4,178,744."

Thus runs the log of the SIX FLEETS as it sums up the leagues on leagues traveled by the Goodrich Test Cars in their nation wide tire-testing cruise of 1917. That grand total marks the mileage high tide of tire making. Read in it the dawn of a new understanding of tire service, the rise of a new tire standard which includes all other standards—The TESTED of—

GOODRICH TESTED TIRES

The cold figures of the log underwrite the lasting strength of Goodrich Tires; for no tire could hide a weakness in that multiplied mileage. Those records and the tires stand surety for Goodrich Tires of 1918.

BLACK SAFETY TREADS, and SILVERTOWN CORDS, challenged every handicap of road and weather, and defeated them with steadfast dependability and durability.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backachy or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Strange Hospitality

Charles Sikolis was in court his morning and according to his story, he was invited by a man into a hotel to have a drink and after "the treats" the fellow refused to pay for the drinks. This angered Charlie so that he "pushed" the fellow a good hard blow in the face and that was all he was arrested for. Burgess Stewart assessed the nominal fine of $1.00 and costs.
